Permanent Community Impact Fund

- The Permanent Community Impact Fund provides loans and grants to counties, cities and towns that are impacted by mineral resource development on federal lands.
- Funding is received by the state from federal mineral lease revenues, bonus payments on specific federal oil shale lease tracts, and all other bonus payments on federal mineral leases.
- In FY2022 the CIB authorized approximately $49,910,227 in grant funding and $64,972,000 in loan funding for 68 rural projects.

Navajo Revitalization Fund

- The Navajo Revitalization Fund provides project funding to the Navajo Chapters in Utah.

Uintah Basin Revitalization Fund

- The Uintah Basin Revitalization Fund provides project funding to the Ute Tribe of the Uintah and Ouray Reservation, as well as Uintah and Duchesne County.

Other Rural Investments – Federal Funded

Community Service Block Grant

- Community Service Block Grant provides funding to address poverty issues throughout Utah such as emergency housing and landlord/tenant mediation.

Low Income Household Energy

- Low Income Household Energy Assistance, locally known as the HEAT Program, provides energy and water assistance benefits to families that meet qualifying criteria.

Community Development Block Grant

- The Utah Small Cities Community Development Block Grant Program assists communities in providing decent housing, a suitable living environment and expanding economic opportunities to cities and towns with less than 50,000 in population and counties with less than 200,000 in population.

Weatherization Assistance Program

- The Utah Weatherization Assistance Program helps low-income households reduce their energy bills by installing permanent energy conservation measures.

Other Rural Investments – State Funded

Emergency Food Assistance Program

- The Emergency Food Assistance Program supports emergency food services.

Earned Income Tax Credit Program

- The Earned Income Tax Credit Program is a state-funded program that connects eligible Utahns to the federal and to the newly created state Earned Income Tax Credit.
